

It's my birthday! I'm super excited. I've already got some presents then later I'm gonna have a family/collage friend party. I'm hoping for money because my favorite basketball player- Tess Darby (which is my name in gallery) who plays for UT has shoes and I found the exact same size as me! Should I get them? Put in the comments below. I always like to have 1000$ in my checking account and I want to buy them. Right now I have 1089$ so the shoes cost 130$ so I need 41$!!! I'm so close guys! Should I buy them? Thx 4 reading!
