

May the winds
protect you all.

I know my blessing holds no real power, but know that I wish those living in the US all the best.

These four years will be hard for you. But I love you all, and I hope that in 2028, you will be alive.