

So you're at PE and u and your classmates play a game (like you're 5 years old) and it's that girl, who thinks she's the most popular girl and everybody likes her and says (to her team):

- Omg, so we're gonna play (idk how the game is called in English)? Oh guys be careful, cause everyone will want to catch me (with the ball), so don't be very close to me.

So yeah she does that all the time. She's just... very annoying (I won't say anything else now)
