

How I got my nickname/username, bc I'm sad :(

(Happened in June 2022)

So.. I used to have a friend online. Just a few months younger than me. He never told me his name, so I called him Shark. We were really great friends, I'd talk to him everyday for hours. We used to talk about the most random things and we would play Minecraft together. I met his friends (they didn't like me) but even if I had issues with them Shark was always by my side. No matter what.

He actually once tricked me into giving him my discord lmao-

Anyways..

I wasn't rly comfortable with him calling me by my name (he did know my name) so he made up a nickname for me, that nickname being Void. Nobody had ever called me Void before him. He said the name matched my personality.

After a while I showed him my face, and he showed me his. He's Korean btw. We were awesome friends for almost a full year. I cared abt him a lot to be honest... I think he started flirting with me a bit but it was kinda subtle.

Then in early April this year... my mom found out about him. She saw my dms with him on Discord. I lied saying he was an old classmate but my mom didn't like him, she didn't like his personality or something like that. She made me block him everywhere... I felt empty. He kept trying to add me back and you have no idea how much it hurt to have to decline his friend requests every single time... without even getting a chance to tell him why. He probably thinks I ghosted him.

Now... I go by Void. To remember him. And I always will.

Shark if you see this somehow... I miss you. A lot :(

And I wish I was more careful. I'm sorry.
