

Hello fellow dragon lovers I just got back from a thing called paes lab it's basically where I skip my first 3 hours to go to a completely different building and basically I do simulation of real life jobs like learning how to count money and checking accounts and learning like wood building or computer stuff I enjoy it very much and I hope it'll help me but down side is

EVEN

LESS

DRAWING

