

Hi guys so as you can see in my title its about @mrdonaldduck he has been harassing @sofiaart @urfavpreppy and problay a lot of others and now he's doing it to me so please read this he's been calling everyone out for tracing and hacking accounts so please be aware if that happens also repost this to get everyone aware

Right I think we can all come to a conclusion about this us they call them out for tracing and it is bad for the people who originally did the piece I get that your all angry for them calling you out but their is nothing to suggest that @mrdonaldduck is homophobic I think that this is over reacting a lil bit
