

Random Question(s):

1.) Do you guys still eat dinner with your family? I mean like, sitting in the same table, eating home cooked meals, and talking with each other? I still eat with my mom and sisters, minus the table part. We eat on the floor because we're traditional. I don't mean eating off of the floor, we have a tray and we just sit down and eat from the same plate.

2.) How many of y'all want the next part of my comic "Endless Void of Hunger". I finished writing the plot and know what will happen, I just need to begin drawing all of the other parts. I want to know if you guys still want to see it.
