

Lia's Lore

Melting eye/pins

Melting eye lore: I'll keep it shored but Lia's eyes were once normal. overtime she started dealing with life stresses such as death and heartbreak. The heart melting represents the hurting how her heart felt like it was "melting". The safety pins represent safety, recovery, healing. Safety pins represent open to help/protect. In the end it represents struggles but healing. A positive outlook in life, thankfulness for what you have.

Style

Her style is legit based off the ultra strawberry dream monster. I'd like to point out the design was made by @the-failing-echo-the-end they made the design based off me IRL, things I like! :3
