

Insanity and Annihilation (AU)

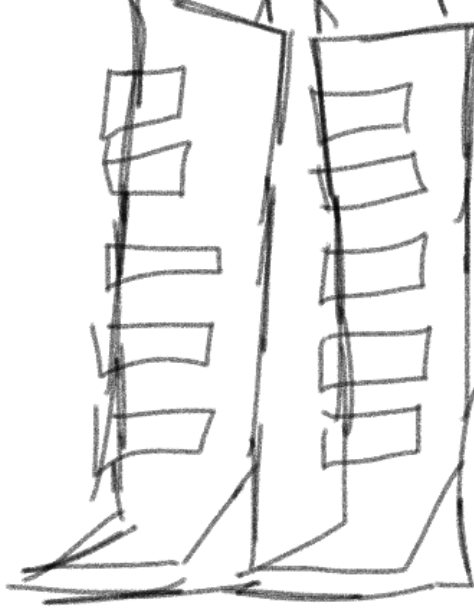

Zim is considered insane (killed his own people on PURPOSE in Operation Impending Doom 1)
Zim is sent to a planet similar to moo-ping 13 (but instead of a jail it's a mental institute.)
Zim escapes (duh), and goes to conventional, only to be sent to earth as punishment instead of a joke.
They send him in a locked ship, no sir unit, no supplies, nothing but his clothes and his PAK.
Zim is so determined to conquer that he steals earth materials, unlocks his spaceship, and builds his own SIR unit. Zim calls it DIR (deadly information retrieval)
Anything he owns is either deadly or could be turned deadly. He lives in an abandoned house, and his base is hidden in the basement. In this AU, Zim takes over the earth (he kills Dib, ripping him open with his spider legs and his claws, insane enough to not even give him a chance.). And how does Zim take over earth? Oh, he just grabs hold of a few nuclear bombs and takes the most destructive route possible, therefore claiming Earth for himself (no he doesn't share it with the tallest. He's not actually insane, just smarter than the others.)

Dib (usually called dibbert in this AU)

He is “more sane” about his research. Less obsessive. In fact, after catching glimpses of Zim while scouting the abandoned house (which he thought had ghosts in it) he doubted the alien would do anything. He was more like Gaz, saying Zim was too much of an idiot (Gaz doesn’t know about zim in this AU)

His doubt ends up getting him killed after Zim finds him scouting the house one night.

Gaz

Oblivious to Zim, more of a quiet kid than the insane apathetic little sister. She’s actually a year older than dib in this AU.

DIR (deadly retrieval unit)

Deadly, still kinda stupid but not in the funny cute kinda way. More of “I’ll kill anyone cuz I think it’s funny” kinda stupid. Zim must restrain him with a special remote.
