SH-

SCP-173, also known as "The Sculpture", is a Euclid-class anomaly contained by the SCP Foundation. It is a concrete sculpture that is approximately 2 meters tall and weighs approximately 468 kilograms. SCP-173 is animate and extremely hostile. It is incapable of moving while within a direct line of sight, but it can move at very high speeds when no one is looking at it. SCP-173 kills its victims by snapping their necks or strangling them.
