So before the actual story starts. Why did I chose the username Mr dragon well honestly mostly I love dragons and I like the idea of being a teacher so Mr dragon was born:3

Ok now onto the actual story. The year is 2023 and I finished 9th grade. At this time I already felt like a really crappy human I was bullied manipulated betrayed. I had a identity problem and had a lot of relationship issues with family. Then summer came and i couldnt live with my mom anymore so I got everything I needed and moved in with my dad. The start of school came and everything that happened at my last school was still lingering in my head. But then I met a group of friends they were nice and they felt like actual friends for the first time in school I felt happy and I felt like I belonged.

A week later my friend introduced me to notability on September 15 when I joined it was new to me I never experienced anything like this

Then I started making some art and then I noticed a few people followed me. Idk who we're all the people but for 2 @qibli and @ssamcatt then I found I could look up other users and I did I saw notability was bigger way way bigger. So I start following people and commenting. At this time I was in family therapy trying to fix a couple of my relationships. I still felt really bad. No joy no happyness nothin. A couple weeks of being in school and I met my (and soon to be) boyfriend

He's the sweetest the nicest person I ever met and I felt something I haven't in a long time love. I wanted to be around him I wanted to see him I wanted to be with him More therapy later and my relationships started slowly getting better for once in my life I felt a purpose. Then fast forward a bit and i slowly started getting more and more followers and more and I started chatting more. Then I met two new people in the gallery

@rewrite and @pub_slayer we started talking and then one thing led to another and boom we were making posts together a lot of our awesome adventures:) then my past trauma started haunting me again and I started getting really paranoid again high anxiety and depression started up. 2 people by the names of jamilex and hutchar00ni showed up on here and I'm going to be real without them I wouldn't be here on this app anymore. Then new years came around it's now 2024. Fast forward to summer and I had to leave notability for the summer during that time I found out a person who hurt me in the pass who also changed for the better started going almost insane especially with him being in a religion. From I understand he started almost doing cult like things. But now I'm still on therapy trying to better myself and m
