

Latin Revision

Derivation (English word which looks like the Latin word and means something similar)

Stem (the part of the word which does not change onto which you add the endings)

Decension (a group of nouns with similar endings)