

Poem I wrote for class...?

Shade

The red of anger is bloody.
The red of sadness is maroon.
The red of joy is crimson.
The red of my own is scarlett.

One color.
Many shades.
Many feelings.

The blue of calm is cornflower.
The blue of curiosity is sky.
The blue of afterthought is cobalt.
The blue of my own is midnight.

One color.
More shades.
More feelings.

The green of content is hunter.
The green of life is fern.
The green of jealousy is mint.
The green of my own is emerald.

One color
Is
All the shades,
All the feelings.
