

Verse 1:

You said you loved me, you said you cared
But then you left me, you weren't prepared
To face the challenges, to make it work
You just gave up on us, you were a jerk

Chorus:

Now I don't need you, I don't want you back
You broke my heart and that's a fact
You can keep your lies, you can keep your tears
You lost me forever, after all these years

Verse 2:

You said you're sorry, you said you've changed
But then you hurt me, you're still the same
You don't deserve me, you don't respect me
You just used me, you don't get me

Chorus:

Now I don't need you, I don't want you back
You broke my heart and that's a fact
You can keep your lies, you can keep your tears
You lost me forever, after all these years

Bridge:

I'm better off without you, I'm stronger on my own
I don't miss you at all, I'm happier alone
You can beg and plead, you can say you're wrong
But it's too late for us, this is our breakup song

Chorus:

Now I don't need you, I don't want you back
You broke my heart and that's a fact
You can keep your lies, you can keep your tears
You lost me forever, after all these years
