

I miss old notability where their barley was drama everyone was happy and got along all my friends were happy....but now look at what it has become a place of toxicity a place of idk anymore...and what feels like betrayals of friends...qibli we may be friends still but what you did was not right and it hurts man it really does you talked to our friends horribly and you know the rest... and theirs a couple of other people who I thought were friends but aren't really.... My heart it feels like it's about to shatter into pieces seeing this once peaceful place devolve into chaos this isn't even counting the amount of people who say their about to hurt themselves...
