

Hey guys! So sorry I haven't posted in a while. So I just wanted to give you a little life update and a quick question. First off, I am in 7th grade and school is super annoying like always. My favorite show is currently "The Summer I Turned Pretty" and "Dancing with the Stars". Anyways, I am on a swim team which you may already know and the most I have ever done at a swim comp is a 200 freestyle which is 8 laps. I am really upset because I just found out my coach signed me up for a 500 which is 20 laps! What? Also my question is what should I be for Halloween ? I literally have no idea.
