

I'll be honest , and probably straight to the point anyway.

I was on Discord earlier on my laptop, And in this one art server I found on Pinterest, I suspiciously found lots of stolen art from I believe DevianArt onto the server, (I do not remember the server name don't ask)

And this one person, we'll call H. H, they were one of the people I was concerned about. Because I hosted a contest not even a few hours ago for the server as I did get mod in the server. Not even a few hours ago I hosted the "Spring Contest" for the server and H, they posted their "art" 10 minutes after I posted, and when I used google lens, I found the same piece of art on DevianArt.. I contacted the artist from Devian, and I'm still waiting for a response back, but I'm sure she stole or that's her account!!
