

Hello everyone, I would like to clarify some things before any confusion forms when or if the Liam's circus comic ends.

I would like to say that when it does end I will still be leader.

There's a big giant twist but I will still be leader.

Next, I want to clarify that when the comic ends the club will not end. The club will still be up and running when the comic ends.

Finally I would like to say that when the comic ends nothing else will change. Let's just say the comic is only a division of the club, but does not define the club. It's only the lore of our ocs. However when wink wink dies, I'll still post normal stuff about wink wink even when wink wink is dead. He's still going to be my OC and is still the clownclub's favorite teehee. Have a good day! -Finn
