

Song guide to mean girls

Cautionary Tale- the way they made it look like it was being videoed on an iPhone was really smart and so was the guitar and they sang it so well the harmonies!!!

What ifs- I don't hate this song. I actually really liked it. My issue with it is it replaced "It Roars", which is Cady's song in the musical. And Cady in the musical is chaotic and fun in the beginning (a lot like Anna) so this song made Cady seem depressed and gave her a different personality. This is a great song but something that should be on Folklore and not in Mean Girls.

Where do you belong (cut song)- I wasn't too mad that this was cut. It's a good song but tbh many people would have gotten annoyed it's very "showy" I love it cause I'm a theater kid but many might not so that's prob why it was cut

Meet the plastics- so this was such a powerful introduction- to Regina. BUT, they cut Gretchen and Karen's part which is sad cause they were funny. Regina's part was great but it kinda needed at a weird spot plus I love Gretchen and Karen's part.

PART 2 COMING SOON!!!!
