

Hello guys! Sorry I haven't posted in a week, I've missed you all so much! I just had my iPad confiscated by my loving older sister during the entire duration that I was absent. Truly disappointing, more especially since I had so much I want to talk to you guys about! But alas my memory fails me once again. I've completely forgotten what I wanted to post to begin with! Anyways, I just spent the last while checking the posts of the people I follow. Seems like many of you have had a wonderful break! Some of you celebrated Christmas with family, got presents, and stayed up for new years! I'm happy for you! And some of you didn't have as much of a pleasant time, but hey! At least you made it to 2025, right? Proud of all of you! Just know I'm rooting for all of you, each and everyone. May this be a blessed year and hope you all continue to grow and stay strong. Good day and goodnight!
