

Ahh, 2024. What a year right?! *sigh* let's be real, it was a horrible year... a lot of people died this year, including Slime (rip <\3). We all grieved and are still grieving for all who were lost this year. Mr. Beast was bad and so was a lot more YouTubers! Now, let's talk about Year in Review. (Remix and put your Year in Review- the good and the bad)

@cabin7_avenger 's Year in Review:

Started the year out with my fav band playing for new years 🙌 (Green Day)

Bought my first vinyl!

Got my permit and panicked to death while driving

Got betrayed by my best friends

Record player and more vinyls

Met one of my best friends (lives in Guatemala 🇬🇲 but we met while he visited America)

Got more serious about my relationship with Christ

Became adventurous and explored when we took trips

Listened to LOTS of Spotify

Had a hoco date for the first time

Got my first bf

First major anxiety attack

Discovered my Punk/Skater style and became in love with it

Started dealing with depression

Broke up with bf (bc God told me I needed to even tho nothing bad had happened)

Got betrayed by my best friends again

Neurodivergent.....

The Lord started showing me a different guy (Guatemala guy.....)

Panicking about life

Deciding to get new friends

Journaling my book ideas and researching writing agents to get published!

Trusting God more than I ever had

Ending my year with Green Day again (this time listening to their songs and reflecting)

Terrified for my future, but remembering that God will be with me no matter what
