

Hey guys, Imma take a break for a while. Notability just isn't what it used to be when I first started out. All this drama's got me upset and I only abt some of my 122-124 followers actually care about my account and aren't spamming follows bc they feel like it (and, yes I know some of u guys made friends with actual hundreds of ppl on here) but I just feel like I should take a break. I will be active again in the future but it may take a few weeks- a few months. I just wanna let you guys know that I love all of you and MOST of you are truly great ppl 🤝.
