

Unique Landforms

Bluefish caves, Badlands, Cap Wolstenholme, Delta, Escarpment, Esker, and Fraser River Canyon.

Climate

Canada has a very cold climate since they are farther away from the equator. They have snow all throughout the year and they only have 2 seasons. They are Winter and spring. Sometimes their noon is like midnight.

Shared Landforms

Rocky Mountains, St. Lawrence, river, and the Great Lakes.

Physical Geography Of Canada

Natural Resources

Oil, natural gas, iron, ore, coal, softwood, lumber, potash, water, and uranium

Fast Facts

- Second largest country in the world behind Russia
- 80% of Canadians live in urban areas near the U.S.
- Canada has more lakes than the rest of the world combined.
- oldest known rocks in the world are found in the Canadian Shield

Resources Challenges

Air pollution, Hazardous weather, rising temperatures, climate change, and melting of ice, caps, and permafrost. etc.