

So you know my last post... my dog is now gone in a better place. I'm sobbing 😭. But my dog always knew that we loved him and cared for him. It's sad though bec he was only 4 years old 😭

Im sorry for your loss and i bet that the four years he live were probably the best four years a dog could ask for. is their anything i can do through here? I really want to help any way possible