

My hero academia person file by pizzal from the support course

Aizawa:alright pizzal(still can't believe that's your hero name)let's here about this new student

Pizzal:ok let me pull up her file

Aizawa:make sure that she is actually worth training

Pizzal:ok here's her record

Name:Mika

Hero name:kitty

Quirk:she is a cat and has all the same features except for a few humanoid features she has increased eyesight and night vision has increased mobility and can cling to just about anything she can get her claws to grip too and she has sharp claws unfortunately she can't swim and while having a high cold tolerance is not immune to it she gets hot easy and if she does get wet her fur weighs her down

Aizawa:well that sounds interesting she definitely wouldn't Do well in a hot environment

Pizzal:yeah but she does well in a cold environment

Aizawa:did you not just read while she has a cold tolerance is not immune to it

Pizzal:yes I did I think I read it out loud

(Deku walks in)deku:what are we talking about in here

Aizawa: "sighs" deku this is pizzal from the support course he is helping me debrief a new student coming to class 1A

Deku(looking excited):oh a new student I wonder what her quirk is gonna be

Pizzal:well I was just about to read the rest of her files you can look over them when I'm done

Deku(nods):ok but can I just hear the rest of what her records are

Aizawa:"sighs"just don't interrupt

Deku:ok!

Pizzal:alright then the rest reads

Records and charges:none

Pizzal:this gets interesting she has been interviewed before

Aizawa(looking curious):interesting what does it read

Pizzal:it reads

Interviews

Interviewer:tell us how scared were you going against that water villain

Mika:well as a cat I was deeply afraid if my fur gets wet it weighs me down quite a bit and I just hate water

Interviewer:is there anything else you fear

Mika:cucumbers

Pizzal:and that's where her interview ends

Aizawa(looking even more curious):she fears cucumbers

Deku(looking puzzled):wonder why she hates cucumbers

Pizzal:(shrugs)maybe she doesn't like when there close to her like how you see them jump whenever they are in the cats territory

Aizawa:I don't know but she is acceptable as I herd she handled a villain alone without any help or proper training and while being afraid that takes guts

Nezu:(walks in)that's exactly why she is coming to U.A. High school

Pizzal:(looks shaken)nezu! What are you doing here

Nezu:listening that's why she is being put with class 1A to get proper training(he says while looking at aizawa)

Aizawa:yeah but she better be ready for the training like you should as well midoria

Deku:right I'll see you guys in the morning

(Deku runs off)

Pizzal:she also has one more thing but it's most interesting

Nezu and aizawa look over and read it

Place she was born:America in the United States

IQ:143

Nezu:so not only has she taken on a villain but she also is fairly smart

Aizawa:that's good quick thinking is crucial in the field where a split second decision could save you

Pizzal:well that's all on her files that we know of she might be able to tell us more when she gets here

Aizawa:yeah she just might

Nezu:well if we're done I'm heading to bed good night you two

(Nezu leaves the room)

Pizzal:I should also go to bed

(Pizzal quickly leaves the room)

Aizawa:I wonder what this new kid is gonna be like

(After that aizawa leaves as well)

(In dekus dorm)

Deku(with his notebook open):ok so she is obviously a cat so water would be a hindered to her

(Imagine mutter words floating from him)

Bakugo(in the other room over)HEY! You nerd some of us want to sleep not listen to you talk!

Deku(who jumps in his seat)SORRY!

And with that deku drifts off to sleep thinking about the new girl
