

Little bit about me/where I come from

I'm Australian, so are at least up to my great, great grandparents on both sides

Finest part German and some more that I can't remember

My dad's great grandma was Aboriginal so we have heritage from that

Never been overseas apart from going to Stradbroke Island which doesn't really count

Only been on a plane twice in my life. (To Melbourne and back)

Anyways, that about it!
