

Hey!

Does anyone of you have a idea what I should draw? Literally no one comments on my notes and I get really few likes. I'm not sad or mad about it I just wonder if I can draw something else or just change something. Because it's not a lot of fun for me if no one reacts to anything, because I could stop uploading than. Write a comment if you want. PS: Thx to the two people liking my last post ♡!!

PPS: Thx to everyone following

yours
