

<---My original design for her character

- very mischievous
- Often seen pulling Pranks
- loves to hover above others
- longer, fuller braid
- She can retract both her ear and back wings but often chooses not to retract her ears because she has to morph them into normal ears
- She retracts her wings when she is in big crowds or in class
- She has a pair of reading glasses
She keeps on her at all times
- She lives to mess with others
