

Part 3!!!!

Someone gets hurt- AHHH!!! This song was where this movie really started to turn around. Her vocals were amazing, she was flying, the people were pulsing, it reminded me a lot of a dance moms group dance. I died and rose from the dead in the 3 minutes of the number. Went to see it with friends who all talk constantly and we were all speechless. Better in film than musical.

Revenge party- OH MY GOD! again another one that actually got better in the film than the musical. Rainbow hallway was so cute and fun. Vocals and choreo were amazing. When cady sang the "we'll get our party now" it was the only vocal that was kinda meh. I loved this song so much and I listen to it on repeat

Stop and fearless (cut)- stop was a funny song but really theater-y which I love it for but would be weird in a film. Fearless is a really great song and power moment for Gretchen. I was sad that it was cut. Idk why maybe just time purposes???
