

Jack is the main character and the supporting is Joseph. The book is about Joseph who got fostered into a family and has a daughter that he has never seen. His problem is that he's trying to find his daughter and he can't find her even know he is only 14.