

Welcome to the Creator's Circle

Seems like you want to be a judge, but that comes with more duties than being an artist alone.

Rules:

1. You must follow the rules exactly, no finding loopholes (seem so simple, yet it's actually so hard)
2. You are not allowed to know who made the art until the winner is decided
3. Fill out the voting form correctly
4. Be responsible, You are not allowed to take a vote back and ect.
5. Do not tell the artists what to draw! That's my job.
6. Use your common sense (don't criticize others work, cheat, ect.)
7. Do not vote for only your friends!!!!!! (no buts)
8. All other rules on the other sheet apply

The first 7 people to fill out the form will be granted the gift of being a member of the Creator's Circle.

I hope you enjoy it :)
