MONDAY

WEDNESDAY

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper designed for writing. It features horizontal blue lines spaced evenly down its length. A dashed blue line runs vertically along the left edge, creating a margin. At the bottom of the page, there is a solid light blue rectangular box, likely intended for a student's name or class information. The entire sheet is framed by a dashed blue border.
